FIRST IN RESULTS TO ADVERTISERS

NUMBER 1

Rescue Squad Got Four Calls in Few Hours on Last Sunday Forenoon

The Antioch Rescue squad was called four times Sunday morning within a space of a few hours to give aid to persons in accidents.

A collision at the Wisconsin-Illinois state line on Rte. 21 resulted in an injury to six persons.

The head-on crash caused injuries of serious nature to Harriet Styehala, who suffered a broken arm, a possible fracture of the leg and numerous cuts. Olive Syvmbaseski received a neck injury and a severe gash on the cheek and head injuries. Leonard and Palmer Wagner were cut and bruised severely. Two other occupants of the cars were slightly injured. The accident took place just south of the Wisconsin-Illinois state line.

The squad was called to Channel Lake pavilion to administer first aid to a young woman who had fallen from a boat into the water. She fully recovered after a half hour's use of restorative methods and disappeared before her name or address could be learned. Persons in the area knew her only as June and said she lived in Chicago.

A family fight in which the woman was knocked down and her back badly injured was another call. Dr. D. N. Deering had her taken to a Waukegan hospital. He as well as the Rescue squad members suffered no little abuse from the companion of the woman, it was said. The affair took place on Blarney Island at Grass lake and the squad and the doctor called there by telephone, had to obtain motorboats to reach the place.

Called to Rte. 45 on their fourth call of the morning the squad found that Mrs. Harry Johansen of Zion had fallen from an automobile and merely scratched her leg, an injury that did not necessitate its attention.

Kenosha County Fair at Wilmot Will Start Tomorrow, End Sunday

Friday of this week, will see the opening of the annual Kenosha county fair and horse show at the village of Wilmot.

Primarily 4-H club fair to encourage the youth of the County in their farm and home making projects the scope of the fair has been increased to include the projects of adults, with premiums offered in livestock under the direction of Glen Pacey as Supt. and for poultry and rabbits. Austin of the Amateur Flower Growers' department and Glee Hemingway in charge of the Home Economics department for 4-H projects.

Parade Opens Fair

Two Antioch 4-H Girls Chosen to Model During State Fair at Springfield

Two Antioch 4-H club members, Betty Jean McDougall and Adella Rentner, are among the seven Lake county girls chosen to go to the Illinois State fair which starts tomorrow to model prize winning garments they made.

They will leave Wauconda at 1 p.m. Sunday for Springfield, and will return from the fair Wednesday night. While there they will model the clothing in which they won honors at the county 4-H show of economics clubs at Warren High school yesterday.

The Antioch Aces and Jolly Jills had charge of the camp songs during the afternoon program. Their exhibit on sewing won a C as did that of the Russell Roses.

Rosemary Bolton of the Russell Roses, Georgia Stevens of the Millburn Maidens, Doris Claypool of Wauconda, Marjorie Gregorska of Prairie Fairies, and Betty McGaughy of Gurnee are the other delegates to the state fair and Jean Hawkins of Cedar Lake club is an alternate.

Village Seeks Bids for Construction of New Fire Station Building

Estimates to be Opened on August 22; Building Estimate $19,000

The village board set Friday, Aug. 22 as the date on which bids will be opened and the contract awarded for the construction of the new fire station on Orchard st.

Blueprints and specifications were placed before the board members Tuesday evening by the consulting engineer, Leonard L. Latz of Waukegan, and were accepted.

Latz estimated the cost of the new building at approximately $19,000. It will be a one-story tile and brick structure with a large basement that can be used as recreation room, meeting room, or storage. The main floor will be large enough to house three or more large trucks and the overhead doors will permit three trucks to leave the building at one time.

The walls will have an 8-inch thickness, but will be re-enforced at the point of where the beams rest. It will be well lighted and can be easily heated from a central system that eventually can be used for the adjoining city building whenever it is built.

Although the station will be on the west part of the lot now known as the city park, and will open onto both Orchard and the proposed north and south street, it will parallel main st., or Fox River rd.

The board will advertise at once for bids.

Man Killed When Struck By Auto Monday Identified

The body of Robert Kutzler, 22, of Waukegan, was identified Tuesday afternoon by his father, John Kutzler, a watchman at the National Envelope company, North Chicago. It had been thought that Kutzler was a patient at the Naval hospital at Great Lakes until the identification was made.

Kutzler was struck by a car driven by Irving M. Weber of Antioch, while walking on the pavement of Skokie highway south of Wadsworth road early Monday morning. Weber said that Kutzler walked out on the road in front of the car, and that while he swerved violently to avoid striking him, he was unable to turn sharp enough to miss him altogether and that he was struck by a fender of the car.

County Fair Here Next Week-end to Draw Big Crowd

Good Exhibits and Free Acts to be Provided for Many Visitors

Several thousand persons are expected to attend the first Lake County Fair to be held in six years. This great agricultural exposition will be held on the Antioch High school grounds, August 15, 16 and 17.

The directors of the Lake County Fair association have been working for several months making the necessary arrangements for an outstanding fair. To accommodate the larger number of cattle, hogs and sheep, several large tents will be erected on the high school grounds.

Entertainment to be Provided

In order to make the 1947 Lake County Fair an outstanding attraction several entertainment features have been arranged for Saturday afternoon and evening, August 16 and Sunday afternoon, August 17.

The "Jordon Duo", a boy and girl roller skating team, will present an outstanding roller skating act.

An act sure to please and thrill everyone will be the "Baileys". This act will include comedy, hand balancing, and trampoline.

Another sure to please act is entitled "Say It With Music", with Eddy Kozak. Eddy has entertained and thrilled audiences from coast to coast on his concert grand marimba. He has appeared as guest soloist on many prominent radio programs.

Agricultural 4-H Show

A feature of the 1947 Fair will be the Agricultural 4-H Club show and exhibits. All 4-H club members with dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep, swine, goats, rabbits, garden, home beautification, small fruits, and early potatoes will exhibit at the 4-H Club show. Four-H club members will also enter their exhibits in the open classes.

Judging, by competent judges, will begin at 10 a.m., Friday, Aug. 15 in all classes except dairy, which will be judged beginning Saturday at 9:00 a.m. Anyone desiring a premium list giving all of the various classes and rules and regulations for the Fair, may receive one by writing or calling the Lake County Farm Bureau office, Grayslake.

642 Classes of Exhibits

Whether a person lives in the city or on a farm, he will find a class in which he can make an exhibit. Open to everyone in Lake and adjoining counties, the fair offers an opportunity for all to display the best of the past year's efforts. Everyone from the amateur photographer to the homemaker will find a class in which to enter his prized achievements. A large number of classes for exhibits are being provided in order that everyone may make exhibits. Classes are provided for sheep, swine, dairy cattle, beef cattle, agricultural products; horticulture, fruits, fine arts, and miscellaneous art; domestic arts, pantry stores, including canned fruit, canned vegetables, canned meat, jams, jellies, pickles, yeast bread and rolls, quick breads, cookies, cakes and pies, honey, and dairy products.

"Chickie" Wrecked in Boat Race Sunday and 'Mystery' Still Untested

Upset and wreck of the "Chickie" and engine trouble for the "Viking" left Antioch's "mystery" boat without knowledge of its ability in its first race at the Yacht Club Bohemia last Sunday.

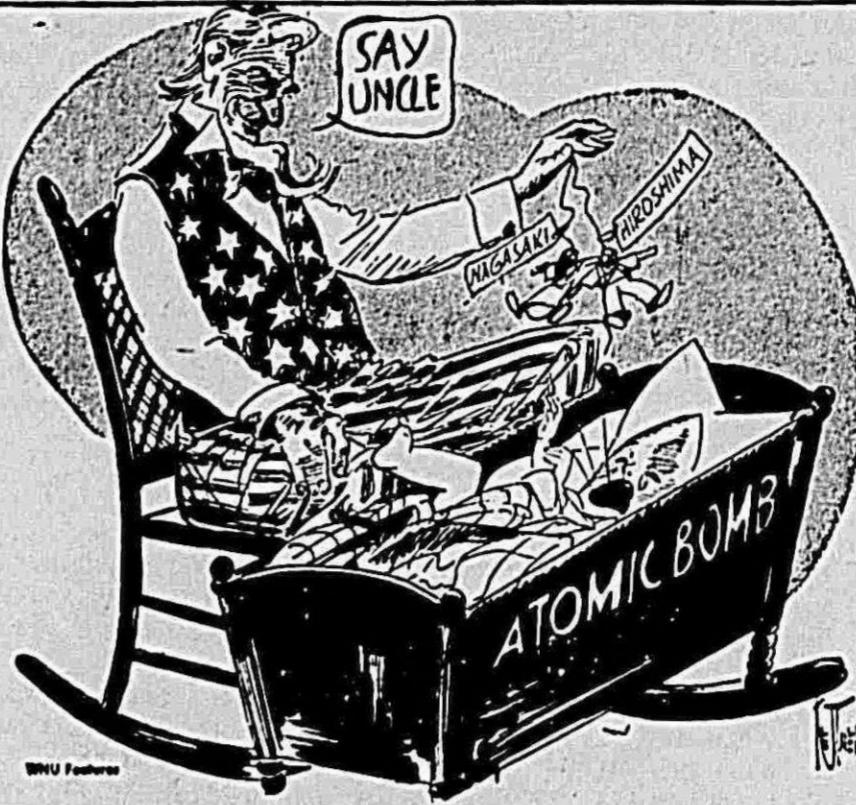

In the first race the "Chickie" upset end over end at the second turn, tearing off the deck and the transom, but remaining afloat upside down so that it could be towed in. The driver, Mel Buelow was unhurt. A moment afterward the "Viking" died and the "Mystery" was the only boat coming in on its own power. Fred Stahmer was its driver.

The "Mystery" got off to a poor start, but was said to be catching up when the other two boats went out. Other racers in the other events had less difficulty and provided good attractions.

The next race will be on Aug. 18, at Riverside hotel, at McHenry on Fox River. The race will be under both bridges.

The "Mystery" is planning to enter this race.

Second Anniversary

Lions Club Committee Begins Annual Campaign to Raise Money for Antioch Rescue Squad Fund

The Antioch Lions club Rescue Squad fund committee is opening its second year of solicitation for funds to support the Antioch Rescue squad.

The good work of the squad, especially this year when many more demands are being made for its services, has been impressed upon this territory.

The Lions club committee was organized in this project so that members of the squad can give all of their time to rescue work without the worry of financing the service itself.

Groups Have Agreement

Through an agreement between the Rescue squad, the committee will raise the money and the squad will administer it.

The agreement follows:

WHEREAS, the Antioch Lions Club has, through a public solicitation of funds for the benefit of the Antioch Rescue Squad, accumulated a sizeable Fund called the Rescue Squad Fund, and has further ap-

Parking Meters Provide Village Nice Income, but Some Headaches Also

Parking meters are paying their way well, the first report to the village board Tuesday evening shows.

Receipts from the meters to Aug. 1 probably will provide the village approximately $360 as its share and at the present rate this amount will be increased next month.

The receipts to Aug. 1 were $1,409.

On Aug. 1, the report of Mrs. Elmer Hunter, treasurer, showed. From this amount, $448 must be taken out first for installation and $11.10 freight charges.

The village is next allowed 25 cents a meter or $25 for the 100 meters as a service charge. The balance is split 75-25 with the Duncan Meter Corp., the meter company taking three-fourths as payment in the sale of the meters to the village.

When the meters are all paid for the village will get all of the income.

Many Fines Also

The report of Mrs. Hunter showed that fines to date amounted to $130.50, and Police Magistrate Elmer Brook said that income since Aug. 1 would run the amount to $174.

Brook is to be paid 40 per cent commission for collecting the fines, an amount he considered a little small in view of the abuse that goes with the job from those who get tickets.

Evidence that not nearly all of the parking tickets are settled for is found in the fact that only about 350 of the approximately 800 tickets issued have been paid. This would indicate a follow up system used by other cities will be necessary.

The parking meter supervision is no easy task. The police have hourly rounds to make; both have to work together in making collection and Mrs. Hunter said it took her three hours to count the pennies and nickels in the last collection.

Police Handle Complaints

Magistrate Brook said he is leaving to the police all complaints on the tickets. He narrated a few instances of his dealings with persons who thought tickets they were given were unjust and said that one woman followed Chief Fred Peterson all over the business section in protest.

The trustees protested the long time double parking of delivery trucks. They said the truckmen are taking advantage of the permit in double parking in ignoring metered parking spaces which are at the time occupied and on the other hand block persons who are trying to get out from parking places.

Corn was but slightly hurt owing to the large amount of moisture in the ground. It was good weather for harvesting and much wheat and oats have been cut.

And Some Want It Here

The believers in the totalitarian state always argue that that form of government does the most to advance the interests of the "common man." They prize of production for use instead of production for profit, and point to the achievements of dictatorship in advancing the standard of living of the worker.

In the light of that, some figures concerning the Russian economy are of interest. In less than a year, the price of black bread, the staple item in the diet of the average Russian, has increased 40 per cent. Milk has gone up 220 per cent, sugar 196 per cent, butter 130 per cent and beef 114 per cent. The cost of clothing and all manufactured goods have also advanced tremendously, and are usually unobtainable at any price. But, in the same period, the wages of Russian workers have gone up only 25 per cent.

The "fortunate" Russians are not burdened with a free, competitive economy such as that in the United States. They don't have to suffer along with such typically capitalistic monstrosities as great factories producing a growing flood of consumer goods—nor do they have chain stores and independent stores all competing with each other for consumer favor. In Russia everything is owned and controlled by the state, and the factories produce and the stores sell only what the masterminds at the top think fit and proper. The result, according to a U. S. Department of Labor survey, is that the living standards of American workers are about 1,000 per cent above those of their Russian counterparts.

Keep that in mind when you hear the virtues of Communism and other "isms" compared to the vices of the competitive free enterprise system of production and distribution.

The European Road

It has been but two short years since the United States showed its ability to produce the materials needed to win World War II. The electric utility companies of the nation rendered outstanding service in making this production possible. They were able to supply electric power when and where needed to meet the exorbitant demands of war. This is the record of one of the nation's outstanding industries during a national emergency.

FRAYED EXTENSION CORDS

are a Household Hazard

Too many homemakers pay too little attention to wiring that members of their household use and handle every day—frayed cords go unchanged, serious damage often results.

Don't let this hazard remain in your home. Now that top grade electric cords are again available, include a check-up of wiring as part of your regular housecleaning. If a cord is frayed or defective, have it fixed by a good repairman or buy a new cord.

Remember, in the future, to avoid yanking a cord from the socket.

Train the children to follow this rule. Keep your household safe from unnecessary hazards.

ARE YOU MAKING—

More Money on Meat, Milk and Eggs?

Some livestock and poultry raisers are passing up one of the greatest profit-making opportunities of a lifetime right now... because they think feed prices are too high. They fail to take into consideration the high prices on meat, milk and eggs the farm produces and the extra-money obtainable. And there are indications that prices may go even higher this fall.

When, for example, has milk brought $3.60 cwt. . eggs, 42c a dozen... hogs $23.40 cwt? Many of the commodities you raise on your farm have not only doubled but tripled in price, while feed prices have advanced only about half.

Yes, this certainly is the year to produce for profit! And the part good feed—Purina Chows—plays in your profit picture is better than ever this year. With these high prices available, you need the feed that's built for profitable production. Purina Chows have been helping American farmers give outstanding production, year after year, for 53 years. Let them help you produce profitably this year, too.

4-H Clubs Obtain Gift of $5000 for Camping Program from State IAA

Illinois 4-H boys and girls are the glad recipients of a gift from the Illinois Agricultural association which has enriched their camp fund to the tune of $5,000.00 states Mrs. Helen Volk, home adviser, and Ray T. Nicholas, farm adviser. The check, accepted for the clubs by H. P. Rusk, dean of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, will be deposited at state headquarters for use in building up a state-wide system of 4-H camps.

The gift was presented July 23 by I. A. A. President Charles Shuman before an appropriate group of outstanding 4-H members—the delegates to 4-H Junior Leadership camp on Lake Bloomington. Lake county was one of approximately 80 counties represented at the occasion, with Betty Lou Anderson, Orpha Crook, Billy Fink and Harry Knigge as the four local delegates. Mrs. E. N. Cantwell, leader of the Wadsworth Workers, also attended.

Largest contributions at state headquarters thus far have come from McHenry, Douglas, Champaign, Cook, DuPage, Lake, Piatt, Sangamon and Stephenson counties. The 4-H clubs in these counties will be permitted to use a cabin at 4-H or having contributed.

traffic patrolman to stop such practices is needed.

Cunningham's admission that he did not know the full solution to the problem brought from Bartlett the suggestion that the board fire any fireman speeding to the fire station.

New Type Sewage Treatment

William Volk of Channel lake appeared before the board and said that he represented the Baxter Milling Co., manufacturers of a new type of sewage disposal plants that he said will revolutionize present processes and lower costs. He said the village could be saved 25 per cent in the installation of its plant and 50 per cent on maintenance. He was told to submit his proposal to the village engineer and if approved the board will meet in special session if necessary to adopt it. The system is now being installed in Anderson, Ind., Volk said.

The village has voted a $32,000 bond issue to pay for an improved sewage system.

Will Improve Arterials

Victor Kassen, special engineering consultant of the village estimated a need of $4,000 to pay costs of four arterial streets in Antioch.

President Bartlett informed the board it would receive $1,355 from the state as aid in the postwar planning and this can now be applied on the city's construction. He said the legislature had renewed the appropriation measure for the benefit of cities and villages that had applied but not received their share.

Village Attorney George McGaughay was unable to attend last night's session because of meeting of barbers at Rockford. President Bartlett, suffering from a leg ailment, made the trip to the village hall under rather painful circumstances. Two of the trustees were absent.

Local Breeder Seeks State Poultry Crown In National Contest

Clarence L. Kutil of Antioch, Phillips J. Hagen of Winthrop Harbor and Alberta F. Hagen of Winthrop Harbor will be among the 38 entries from 20 counties in Illinois competing on August 11 at Springfield for the title of state champion in the national Chicken-of-Tomorrow competition, it was announced here today by Dr. Cliff D. Carpenter, state chairman and president of the Institute of American Poultry Industries.

The Lake County entrants—whose 14-week old birds will compete with entries from 4-H members, hatcherymen, commercial breeders, backyard flock owners and farmers—may qualify also for entrance in the north central regional Chicken-of-Tomorrow meeting in Indianapolis on Sept. 2, 10.

A & P Food store have donated $600 in prizes. The top five winners at the Illinois contest will automatically become eligible for the regional meet.

Regional and state winners will participate in the national finals to take place in 1948, Carpenter stated. Grand champion will receive $5,000 from the food chain and runner-up $1,000. Other substantial awards by the same donor will bring the total to $10,000.

Kutil will enter birds of the Dark Cornish and Buff Orpington breeds. Phyllis Hagan will enter White Wyandottes and White Rocks and Alberta Hagan, White Wyandottes, all of which were hatched during the week of April 27-May 3. Their entries of 12 dressed birds each will be on display at the State Fair in the Dairy Products Building.

In addition to winning the state title, the first place entrant in the Illinois competition will receive a $50 cash award.

Overall objective of the three-year breeding program, which got under way in 1946, is to achieve quick-growing, meatier birds which will consume less feed, resulting in increased profits to poultrymen and greater consumer satisfaction. Active committees are now promoting the program in 39 states.
